Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Jeff A. Greene on October 3, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 4, line 1, change "wherein the" to ---wherein a---;

In claim 4, line 3, change "the seal arrangement" to - ---the housing assembly---.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a cylinder arrangement with a sensor arrangement comprising: a sensor, a sensor electronics module positioned in a sensor body, and an interactive element, the interactive element being moveable relative the sensor wherein a position of the interactive element indicative of a position of the at least one of a piston assembly and a rod assembly is communicated to the sensor electronics module through the sensor; and a housing assembly attached to an end of the body and including a sensor pilot portion, the sensor pilot portion in the housing assembly being structured and arranged to sealably receive the sensor electronics module therein, wherein the sensor electronics module is encased within the sensor body and having a seal being disposed between the sensor body and the sensor pilot portion of the housing.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
